RESEARCH GRANTS:

Since 1988 I have won (solely or with a group) over 20 grants for projects in Australia, Israel, Europe, India and USA totaling $740,000. Funding organizations included Social Science Research Council (SSRC) in the US, the US Institute of Peace, the Australian Research Council (ARC), Indian Ocean Center of Peace Studies, the Israeli Science Foundation (three times), Center for Regional Development, the Albert Einstein Fund, the Lady Davies Trust, the Ministries of Science, Immigration Absorption and Economic and Planning in Israel, Van Leer Institute; The Eshkol Grant, and the Sapir Center for Social and Economic Research. In 2011, I was part of a team (with Adrian Kemp, Nir Cohen and Talia Margalit) to win a grant of 120000 shekel by the Rosa Luxemburg Foundation, Berlin, to conduct a comparative study of urban citizenship, Berlin and Tel-Aviv. In 2013, I have won, with Dr. Sandy Kedar, an ISF grant of 440,000 NIS to study the 'legal geography of the Negev, 1900-1948'.

EDITORSHIP

In the period 1999-2004 I initiated and became first editor-in-chief of the international refereed journal Hagar: International Social Science Research, which is now under a new editorial team (see: <http://www.bgu.ac.il/hagar/>) In the past, I served for six years as the editor of the journal Geography Research Forum with Prof. A. Meir. Since 2007 I have been a co-editor of the journal Planning Theory, responsible for the essay series.

At present I am an editorial board member on a range of acclaimed international journals: Urban Studies, Planning Theory, Environment and Planning A; Space and Polity; Cities, MERIP – Mid-East Research and Information (contributing editor); Journal of Planning Literature, International Journal of Middle Eastern Studies, MIT Journal of Middle East Studies (MIT-EJMES), and Israel Studies Forum.

Beyond dealing with editorial duties of the above journal, I regularly review papers and books for other journals such as Regional Studies, Antipode, Journal of Palestine Studies, Annals of the American Association of Geographers, Geopolitics, Horizons in Geography, Theory and Critique (Hebrew), Journal of Planning Practice and Research, European Planning Studies, Middle East Journal of Comparative politics and others.

TEACHING

I have gained vast experience in university teaching, on both under- and post-graduate level in Australian, Israeli, American, Palestinian, Indian, British, Italian, South African and French universities. I have mainly taught courses on the following subjects: planning theory and history, planning practice (studios), urban policy and politics, regional and metropolitan planning, political geography, the geography of nationalism, identity and conflict in globalizing cities, ethnic relations in immigrant societies, legal geography and comparative land regimes; as well more localized courses on spatial, ethnic and planning issues in Israel/Palestine, Australia and the USA.

SUPERVISION:

Since 1987, I have supervised (to completion) ten PhD students and 28 M.A. students. At present, I am supervising (or co-supervising) four PhD and three M.A. students in geography, planning, law and politics. The PhD supervision, included:

CIVIL SOCIETY

Since the mid 1990s, I have been active in civil society organizations and brought my academic and research-based knowledge to the use of the general society. The main organizations in which I have been involved include: Adva – Center for Social Equality; B'Tselem - the Israeli Information Center for Human Rights in the Occupied Territories" where I served as a co-chair 2009-2012; Bimkom – Planners for Human Rights; and RCUV – Regional Council for the Unrecognized Bedouin Villages, where I have led several projects for these organizations, and produced a range of reports and documents, culminating in the preparation of a regional master plan for the unrecognized villages, (2012). Since 2012 I was one of the five founders and leader of a new movement for an Israeli-Palestinian confederation "two states, one homeland".

PROFESSIONAL AND RESEARCH REPORTS

I have written dozens of professional and research reports for official bodies, NGO's and communities. Notable among them:

- Israel 2020: Quality of Life for All (with N. Carmon) part of the "Israel 2020" long term planning, Technion, Haifa, 1992.
- Agricultural Land and Distributive Justice (with S. Kedar), for the Democratic Mizrahi Rainbow, 2000.
- Principles for Future Bedouin Settlement, Submission to the Goldberg Commission for the future of Bedouin Localities (2008).
- In a Guise of Legality: Declaration of State Land in the Palestinian West bank, Btselem Report (editor and co-writer), 2012.

- Five Btselem Reports on the Jordan Valley, Settlement Expansion, Area C, Children Arrests and The Separation Barrier (editor, while chairperson of the organization, 2009-2013).
- Towers in the Air: the Consequences of Highrising Beersheba (with MA students), 2010.
- New Avenues in an Old City: Urban Revival in Beersheba through Urban Arcades (with MA students), 2012.
- Master Plan for the Unrecognized Bedouin Villages (with N. Baruch and S. Abu Sammur), 2013.
- The City Demands Social Justice: Social Disparities and Corrective Planning for Beersheba (with M.A. students), 2014.

EXPERT WITNESS IN COURT

I have served as expert witness in several landmark legal decision in Israel's High and District Courts, including:

- The Qa'adan Case – for allowing Arab land purchase in a Jewish locality (2000)
- The Regional Council for Unrecognized Villages (for dismissing the Beersheba Metropolitan Plan), 2001.
