

PLANNING THE UN-PLANNABLE?

DEALING WITH URBAN INFORMALITIES

International Seminar

The seminar will focus on the question: what can and should planning do about expanding unplanned (informal, illegal) development? what should be the role of planning research? Professional institutes? NGO's? The government?

Wednesday, February 18th 2015
14:00-18:30

Ben-Gurion University of the Negev
Building 72, room 250

ALL ARE WELCOME!

PROGRAM

Chair: Oren Yiftachel
Ben-Gurion University of the Negev

14:00

OPENING LECTURE

Informal Land Markets – Perspectives for Policy

Bishwapriya Sanyal

Ford International Professor of Urban Development and Planning, Department of Urban Studies and Planning, MIT, Boston

15:00

COFFEE AND REFRESHMENTS

15:30

ISRAELI PERSPECTIVES

Talia Margalit, Tel-Aviv University

Yosef Jabareen, The Technion

Rachel Katoshevsky, Practicing planner and researcher

Tali Hatuka, Tel-Aviv University

Nurit Alfasi, Ben-Gurion University

17:30

OPEN DISCUSSION

The Department of Geography and Environmental Development
BEN-GURION UNIVERSITY OF THE NEGEV
Lloyd Hurst Family Chair in Urban studies